

Parents choosing to claim a nonmedical exemption have two options to meet the education requirement

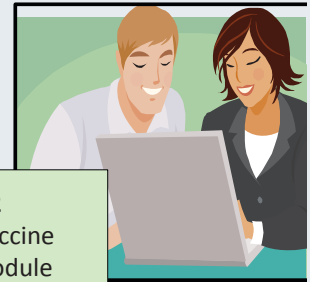

Option 1
Your healthcare provider

Call your provider to schedule an appointment*

Healthcare practitioner provides vaccine education

Provider signs a Vaccine Education Certificate

Option 2
The online vaccine education module

Watch the module at www.healthoregon.org/vaccineexemption

Watch the sections for each vaccine for which you want to claim an exemption

Print the online Vaccine Education Certificate

OR

Take the signed Vaccine Education Certificate to your child's school, child care, preschool or Head Start and fill out the nonmedical exemption section of the Certificate of Immunization Status form

*If your provider does not provide the Vaccine Education Certificate, contact another provider or view the online vaccine education module
